

Hi! We are Sean and Anna.

Why We Want to Adopt: Adoption has been a part of Anna's life story from the beginning - Anna and her close cousin were both adopted into their families as newborns. Based on her amazing experience, Anna always wanted to grow her future family through adoption. Early in our relationship, Anna shared this desire to adopt with Sean and explained how meaningful it is to her. Sean immediately loved and embraced the idea of adoption. Since then - for over 6 years now - we've been united in our desire to grow our family through adoption.

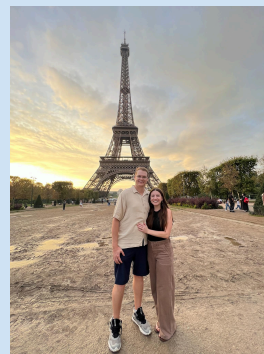

Our Promise: Our promise to you is that we will establish a supportive and stable environment where your child will always feel safe, cherished, and unconditionally loved. Our home will be one full of understanding, laughter, and love. We will teach your child strong moral values and encourage them to live a Christ-centered life as a kind and compassionate person making a positive difference in the world. We will openly share the story of your courageous and selfless decision and your love that brought them to us.

About Us: We met in 2017 while playing in a recreational sports league. We built a strong, close friendship for almost 2 years before beginning our relationship; we have been a couple for over 6 years and married for the last 3 years. Our relationship is built on mutual love and support, shared core values, and our commitment to be a great teammate to one another. We love laughing together at comedy shows and singing along at concerts. We love to travel, cook, watch and play sports, try new restaurants, and take nightly neighborhood walks. We love secondhand finds and have been thrifting our future baby's library for years!

Anna enjoys sunsets, reading, crafts, and anything outdoors. Sean describes Anna as selfless, passionate, smart, and has a great sense of humor that brings so much joy and laughter into our home. Sean loves attending and watching a wide variety of professional sporting events, participating in trivia nights, and working on home improvement projects. Anna describes Sean as faith-driven, outgoing, kind, easy-going, and loves his quick wit.

Our Home and Community: Our home is located in a quiet cul-de-sac in a very safe and established neighborhood that is ideal for families. There's a strong sense of welcoming and support within our local community, especially with our close neighbors. We have a large backyard that includes a wooded area, fruit trees, plenty of space for a child to play/run around, and an enclosed pool. Our home is filled with natural light and bright colors; it's a warm and inviting place where we love to spend time together and where a child will feel safe, loved, and at home.

We are very close with our families and love spending time together. We have a group of loving and supportive friends, many who have young kids. Our family and friends are excited for our adoption journey - they are praying and cheering us on!

Thank you for considering us as adoptive parents of your child. We recognize your decision is made from a place of deep love, incredible strength, and extraordinary selflessness. We want you to feel confident and comfortable with your decision - we are open to meeting with you if you have any questions or want to learn more about us.
